P	Class	Description
*	Beg II	Beginner II. After Beginner group or equivalent. Learn new skills & get more distance, duration & distraction. Assumes basic stays and heeling skills. Recommended before Intermediate if possible
*	CGC	Canine Good Citizen. Prep for CGC Test, Basic skills some insurance/landlords use as proof of training. www.akc.org for more info. We will offer a test at some point.
*	Intermediate	Variety class, something new each week. More advanced skills, fun for human and dog. After mastery of Beginner skills, minimum solid stay and heeling.
*	Manners	Focus on manners (basically anything that can embarrass you in front of others, LOL). Polite greetings, Behaving during meals, respecting doorways, car behavior, watching neighbors quietly, ets (leash work not
	Obs	Obstacle classes. Mini agility, need no experience. Any age dog. Use energy/bond. Tunnel, poles, mini A-frame, tire-jump and more. New dogs taught in class (or do mini private first)
*	Recall	Learn to have a dog that REALLY comes when called, the FIRST time, EVERY time. Even with distractions.
	Nail Clipping	First Sunday of month, unless holiday. 11 am-1 pm. $15. 1st come/1st serve, by left to right parking til we arrive & give numbers. Details: web, fbook or call
	Tricks	Learn 3 new tricks. Choices include spin, take a bow, bang (play dead), back, paw, wave, giddy up & more.
*	Therapy Dog Prep	Get you and your dog ready to do therapy dog work such as visiting in hospitals, nursing homes, schools, etc. Buld on basics - loose leash walking, stays, leave it and more. Info on therapy dog organizations and test materials. Great training and skills for control and reliability.
*	Traveling	Traveling = with distractions! Train your dog in new, public places. Often the town green (call for details). Fun, challenging and often involves ice cream or a snack for the humans somewhere afterwards (optional), which is even more practice for your dogs.
	* = PREREQUISITE	Prerequisite: ABC Obedience Beginner level skills or equivalent with approval.
